OLD GOLD DAY AT UNIVERSITY THIS WEEKEND

SATURDAY WILL BE ANNUAL HOMECOMING AT DEPAUW

Homecoming, pre-war style, will be held on the DePauw University campus Saturday, Nov. 4. President Clyde E. Wildman and his Old Gold Day committee plan a full-scale program in which the graduates who will return to college for a day.

With the arrival on the campus of Old Gold Day guests, DePauw fraternities houses, sorority houses, and residence halls will be decorated in tradition of the cup which will be presented to the organization having the best decorations. Judges, who will be chosen by Kappa Tau Kappa interfraternity council, will begin their tour of the houses and halls at 9 a. m.

At 9:30 a. m. the board of directors of the DePauw Alumni Association will meet in East College, and a half hour later the returned graduates will begin to assemble in Meharry Hall for the annual Old Gold Day chapel. The DePauw marching band, under the direction of Prof. Franklin Inglis, will "whoop it up" on the East College as the visitors assemble.

The chapel program, which will begin at 10:30, will include a pep session for the afternoon football game, short speeches by students and alumni, the presentation of the cup to the winning house in the decoration contest, and the unveiling of a picture of the projected Memorial Student Union Building. Parker Jordan of Indianapolis is president of the Alumni Association football contest at 1:30. Reviving a tradition dormant during the entire war period, the students will release masses of gold balloons as the traditional mark of DePauw's first touchdown of the game.

The Old Gold Queen will be crowned during the halftime at the football game. She will be selected by the campus fraternities from among five candidates: Sylvia Stephens, East Chicago, Ind.; Virginia Auble, Maywood, Ill.; Joy Mullender, Chicago; Betty Lou Benson, Batesville, Mo.; and Janis Hatz, Gary, Ind. Also at the game the DePauw band will appear in marching formation during the half.

Immediately following the game a "mixer" for alumni, students, and professors will be held in "The Barn," student-operated relaxation room on the campus. A radio broadcast at 4:45 will be open to guests, and from 9 to 12 p. m. a dance will be held in Bowman Gymnasium. Sponsored by the women's organizations on the campus, the dance will be open to all alumni, students, and friends without charge.

Old Gold week-end will end on Sunday morning when President Wildman addresses the congregation of Goben Memorial Church at 10:40.

20 Years Ago

IN GREENCASTLE

Congressman Noble Johnson carried Putnam county by 409 votes.
County winners in election were: Clifford Dickerson, prosecutor; Fred Lucas, clerk; Willis Gid, auditor; Alva Lisby, treasurer; Leona Cooper, recorder; Ed Eiteljorge, sheriff; Frank Reed, coroner; Orville O'Neal, surveyor. "Jim" Watson and Arthur R. Robinson were the U. S. Senate winners in the state.

FACTS DUE PUBLIC

Advertising by political candidates has been regulated by an act of congress, and one such advertisement in last week's Daily Banner came under this act. It was the one signed by "Committee of Taxpayers." The advertisement was paid for by Mrs. Myrtle I. Collings, candidate for joint senator from Putnam and Montgomery counties on the Democrat ticket. The advertisement content also inferred that Sen. Lane voted for the widows' pension bill. The Senate Journal, official record of the upper house, does not carry the name of Sen. Lane as voting for this bill.

Youth Activities Deserve Backing

Among the youth activities within Putnam County that deserve financial backing of Putnam county citizens is that of Girl Scouts. This fact was established when the Board of Directors of the Putnam County Community Chest placed that organization among the benefiting groups of the Community Chest fund. The campaign is scheduled to open November 12.

Mrs. Robert Williams, local commissioner for Girl Scouts, has stated that growth of that organization within the county requires financial assistance from the community. There is an existing need, Mrs. Williams said, for a rationally trained leader who is capable of directing the volunteer leadership now being given by sixty volunteer adult workers.

The records show that there are now thirteen troops in Greencastle, two in Putnamville and two "lone" troops in Roachdale. Mrs. Williams expressed the conviction that these numbers might be increased, thus making the valuable training offered by scouting available to greater numbers of girls, if community funds were made available for the expansion.

Community service is one of the features of the Girl Scout program. Assistance to the Putnam County Hospital has included the folding of napkins, preparation of tray cloths, making of hospital bags and tray favors. Local Girl Scouts have conducted silk hose, key, and canned food collections. They have taken part in house to house canvasses for the purpose of obtaining pledges for the saving of salvage fats.

"Girl Scouts," Mrs. Williams said, "are trained in harmonious living. The courage and the young energy of the membership, rightly directed, can become a force for peace and stability. The direction and encouragement must come from adults."

CONDUCTOR FINED

Roy F. Nelson, Terre Haute, Pennsylvania freight conductor, who was charged with blocking the Cemetery Road crossing with his train for an hour on Sept. 28, has been found guilty by Rexell A. Boyd, city court judge. Mr. Nelson paid a fine of $10 and costs. Evidence in the case was heard in municipal court recently.

SIGN FIRST TRADE TREATY IN 100 YEARS

UNITED STATES AND CHINA
REACH AGREEMENT
EARLY TODAY

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4 (UP)—The United States and China early today signed their first comprehensive trade treaty in more than 100 years, and U. S. officials emphasized that it was not made to bolster the nationalist government of Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek.

The treaty was signed at Nanking yesterday (Nanking time). It is the first basic accord between the two nations since 1844, in the days of the Yankee clipper.

It must be ratified by the U. S. senate and by the Chinese legislative Yuan. When ratified, it will be in force for five years, and thereafter until one nation gives a year's notice of intent to terminate it.

State department officials called the treaty this government's first modern postwar trade pact. They pointed out that disputes arising under the agreement would be referred to the international court of justice for settlement.

Officials made it plain that the intent of the treaty is not to support Chiang's regime against the Chinese Communists. Its main purpose is to insure equal trade rights and opportunities for individuals and business concerns of both countries.

The document assures that Chinese and American business men will receive no less favorable treatment than is accorded nationals of any third country in customs, shipping, taxes, and other matters.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—(INS)—An arbitration plan set the stage today for an early end of the two-week-old strike of 1400 Trans-World Airlines pilots.

Mediation Board Chairman Frank B. Douglas began arbitration conferences with representatives of TWA and the striking AFL Airline Pilots Association.

Douglas said that if the arbitration agreement is accepted TWA planes, strike-bound on both domestic and overseas routes since the more-pay walk-out was called, will resume flights.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—(INS)—The OPA today authorized immediate paint price increases ranging from 31 cents to $1.50 a gallon and said that either decontrol or increased ceilings on soap prices could be expected shortly.

The agency indicated that the action on soap probably would be a price increase, made necessary by decontrol of all fats and oils used in soap production.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—(INS)—Richard C. Cadwallader, chairman of an American Legion committee investigating the veterans housing program, charged today that government policy is hindering the construction of rental housing for veterans.

Cadwallader's seven-man committee is in Washington to conduct a court of inquiry, starting today, at which government officials and others are being questioned on the cause and cure of the housing shortage.

Cadwallader told INS before today's session opened that preliminary investigation has convinced him "government financial techniques are tightening risk capital from the rental construction field."

Cadwallader said he considers the dearth of rental construction to be the most important obstacle to an adequate veterans housing program.

RECESS COAL PARLEY UNTIL AFTER ELECTION

WAGE PARLEY RE-OPENS IN CAPITAL AFTER WEEK-END RECESS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—(INS)—Soft coal wage conferences recessed until after the elections today amidst spreading wildcat strikes in the southern Appalachian fields.

At the end of a two-hour session this morning, government and United Mine Workers officials announced adjournment of the talks until 11 A. M. Wednesday. They refused to comment further.

At the same time, the solid fuels administration reported a slight increase in wildcat work stoppages among the miners.

A fuels administration spokesman said in coming reports from the bituminous districts showed 56 mines down and 8200 workers idle.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4. (UP)—Representatives of the Federal Coal Administration and the United Mine Workers (AFL) returned to the bargaining table today to talk about a new wage contract for 400,000 soft coal miners.

There was little likelihood, however, that the issues would crystallize before the return of Secretary of Interior J. A. Krug from a western tour scheduled to end at Los Angeles Wednesday.

Even Krug's return cannot clear the way for an agreement unless there also is a significant change in government wage stabilization policy. There have been indications that such a change will be announced soon.

BIG CROWD ENJOYS PRIEST BARN DANCE

Nearly two hundred visitors attended the big barn dance given by C. K. Priest at Brick Chapel Saturday evening. The dance was in the new meat processing plant recently completed by Mr. Priest and the setting was a perfect one for the "shin-dig."

Mr. Priest expects to begin the processing of meat during the week and thought it a grand idea to hold the barn dance before the building was used for any purpose.

The visitors also inspected the building throughout which is most modern in every way for the purpose to which it will be put and it should prove of great help to the community through the meat processing period. Mr. Priest expects to be able to furnish the meat ready for freezing or for curing, which ever the customers desires, and he also expects to continue the processing throughout the entire year.

The square dancing proved highly popular with young and old with such old timers as Ben Jarvis and Harry Ciltz doing the "calling" every one had a chance to "chase the skirts" around the swirl to his heart's content.

SIGN TRADE TREATY

Officials said the full benefits of the treaty would not be felt until peaceful conditions are re-established in China, pointing out that normal trade activities are impossible with a nation split by civil warfare.

Pledging "constant peace and firm and lasting friendship," the treaty provided:

1. Equal right to reside, work, travel, manufacture and practice professions for nationals of one country in the territory of the other.

2. Nationals of both countries to be accorded the right to own property, hire regardless of nationality, and be free of "unlawful" entry or molestation of their property.

3. Corporations and individuals of both countries to be free of special taxes and fees not applicable to domestic enterprises.

4. Nationals of both countries to be free to organize, participate in and control corporations located in the other. Property would be safeguarded from seizure without "due process of law" and adequate compensation.

LUCK IS BAD

PETERSBURG, Ind. Nov. 3.—(INS)—When George Robling's home burned two weeks ago, he figured that was enough misfortune for some time but now he's beginning to wonder whether or not he and Job of Biblical fame have something in common. In the fire, Robling and his family lost everything they had except the clothing they were wearing. A week later a valuable horse died, and now the farmer, who lives west of Petersburg is recovering from injuries suffered when he was thrown by another horse.

RECESS COAL PARLEY

after tomorrow's election.

Government officials expected last week's flurry of wildcat strikes to end today. It was recalled, however, that unauthorized walkouts in scattered mines were common whenever the UMW negotiated for a new contract.

The outlook for a nationwide shutdown will become more apparent when UMW President John L. Lewis shows his hand. Like other labor leaders, Lewis wants government wage controls abandoned completely.

Under the union's interpretation of the contract, Lewis could serve notice Nov. 15 to terminate the contract five days later. Miners stop work when contracts expire even when working in government-operated properties as they have been since the mines were seized in May.

ans Return State Police

ANAPOLIS, Nov. 4.—The police department re-opens its prewar manpower with the return of the last men who served in the forces, Col. Austin R. Kilham, department superintendent, today.

investigator, and Donald J. Weber, Petersburg, army lieutenant in military government, were the final men to resume police duties Nov. 1. Kirkham was assigned to Headquarters post, embracing Marion county, and Weber to Jasper post.

Praising state policemen who participated in World War II, Colonel Killian asserted that "the record shows that every man served his country on the battle fronts with the same loyalty and devotion as he did the citizens of Indiana while an enforcement officer." While several policemen were wounded in combat, Lieut. Rex F. Barwick, Judyville, former Lafayette post trooper and Purdue university student, was listed the only casualty. The twenty-six-year-old Flying Fortress pilot was reported missing April 9, 1944, on his twenty-ninth mission over Germany. He held several air corps medals.

Barwick was appointed to the department Sept. 1, 1941, and had patrolled in Benton county until he entered military service

Feb. 20, 1943. The state police official also lauded the men who carried on the department's homefront responsibilities despite a serious personnel shortage. With Indiana ranking high in the nation's war production output, state troopers played an important role in moving military traffic over Hoosier roads, aiding prevention of war plant sabotage and training civilian defense groups, he said.

Old Gold Beats Quakers, 13 to 6

Two touchdowns by Don Galbraith in the fourth quarter enabled the DePauw football team to win its first football contest of the season Saturday afternoon as the Tigers defeated Earlham, 13 to 6, in rain-soaked Blackstock stadium. Jim Highland's kick for the additional point was good on Galbraith's first jaunt into paydirt territory. He also booted the pignskin between the uprights the second time but the Old Gold eleven was off sides and got a 5-yard penalty. His next try was blocked.

Earlham's touchdown in the third quarter came as result of a blocked kick on the DePauw 22-yard line. On the next play, "Rabbit" Brown, ebony-skinned Quarter halfback, scampered the necessary distance to score for the Richmond aggregation. Jim Jones' attempted conversion for the extra point was blocked.

The Old Gold threatened in the opening frame by driving to Earlham's 1-yard line only to lose the ball on downs. Then in the second quarter, the Tigers advanced to the Quaker 5-yard line where a fumble gave the ball to the victors.

In addition to Galbraith, who entered the game late, other Tigers who looked good against Earlham included Ogden Babcock, Coffey, and Isenbarger.

Between halves, DePauw's Marching Band put on a great show for the spectators.

This Saturday, the Tigers will be host to the strong Oberlin, Ohio, team. It will be Old Gold Day at DePauw and another record crowd is expected to witness the gridiron battle.

NINE KILLED

KINGSTON, Pa., Nov. 4—

(UP)—State police counted nine dead today in a head-on collision described as one of the worst highway accidents ever recorded in Pennsylvania.

Included among the victims were a 20-year-old mother and her baby which Luzerne county Coroner Lewis S. Reese said "was born and died at the scene of the accident."

The accident occurred yesterday about nine miles west of here, State police said the cars rolled over several times after the crash and then burst into flames, killing eight of their nine occupants instantly and burning their bodies beyond recognition.

DEWEY TO WIN: WALLACE
NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—(UP)—Henry A. Wallace said last night that if the Republican party scores a landslide victory in the congressional elections the whole world will think the United States has become reactionary and will turn to Russia for leadership.

In a home-stretch campaign speech at Alexander Hamilton High School in Brooklyn Wallace amazed his Democratic and Liberal party audience by predicting that Governor Thomas E. Dewey, G. O. P. presidential candidate in 1944, would win his bid for re-election over Democratic candidate Senator James Mead.

But he urged the voters to support Mead and other Democratic candidates, asserting that a Republican election would mean a brief period of "active inflation" which would be followed by a depression.

MINISTERS OF BIG 4 MEET IN NEW YORK

DIPLOMATS HOPEFUL OF SETTLING PROBLEMS
BY CHRISTMAS

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—(UP)—The Big Four Council of foreign ministers meets today for the fourth time in 13 months with high hopes that before Christmas there will be agreement on final peace treaties for Hitler's satellites and preliminary understandings on the critical German problem.

The first New York meeting will start at 3 p. m., CST., in the 37th floor suite of the Waldorf Hotel which has been reserved for the ministers' deliberations.

U. S. Secretary of State James F. Byrnes, Soviet Foreign Minister Vyacheslav M. Molotov, British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin, and French Deputy Foreign Minister Maurice Couve de Murville—flanked by advisors—will head the delegations. Their talks in coming weeks will determine whether the big four are now ready to bargain on their differences or whether the east versus west split is to continue to prevent the writing of final peace treaties for Italy, Romania, Bulgaria, Hungary and Finland. More important late this month the four, joined then probably by French President Georges Bidault, will decide whether it is possible for them to begin work on a final treaty for Germany, and possibly Austria.

In view of past failures to come to understandings on crucial parts of the Hitler satellite Treaties or to appear even close in their approach to the German problem, this meeting starts with more than the usual amount of pessimism.

What hope there is stems from:

Recent Soviet statements indicating that the Soviet Union is now ready to begin "talking turkey" about Germany, and its general agreement with some of Byrnes' proposals—economic unification, early provisional German government.

2. A slight—very slight—sign from Yugoslavia that she may not be unyielding about the critical issue of Trieste and the Italo-Yugoslav border issues as she was in Paris.

Ever since the foreign ministers of the four great Allies started in September, 1945, to try to formalize the end of the war with Hitler's satellites, rival Italian and Yugoslav claims for Trieste have plagued them.

Yugoslavia's Deputy Foreign Minister Ales Bebler took a little of the edge off his country's stand last night on the eve of the Big Four meeting at which both Yugoslavia and Italy will be given another chance to present their views. He said, in contrast to previous Yugoslav statements, that "for her part Yugoslavia is willing to do whatever she can in order that an agreement between the Allies (on the Italian peace treaty) be reached."

Today's council of foreign ministers meeting will be devoted to procedural matters—deciding how they will tackle the multitude of recommendations for changes and additions to the Satellite Treaties made by the Paris peace conference.

Like all previous foreign ministers meetings, today's will be secret. News photographers will be allowed five minutes to take pictures. Otherwise the 37th floor of the Hotel Tower as well as the sections in which the delegations will live, will be out of bounds to the press and anyone else without top priority credentials.

ENOUGH IRA COLES TO HOLD CONVENTION

MADISON, Wis. (UP)—The Ira Coles intend to hold a convention one of these days.

It began when Ira Cole, a Madison machinist, retired and the fact was reported by the Wisconsin State Journal. Ira Cole, a Cleveland, O., varnish company official, saw the story. Ira Cole, a Lafayette, Ind., doctor, got word from a passing drug drummer.

After an exchange of letters they got together and talked about matters of mutual interest.

Results: A common ancestor six generations back, five other certain Ira Coles, and the interesting possibility that a second Ira Cole may live in Cleveland.

A BRITISHER SEES FOR HIMSELF

SIR ARCHIBALD JOHN CLARK-KERR, right, British ambassador to the U. S., stomps through an Iowa cornfield with a young farmer of the Hawkeye state, Roger Newburn, and thereby lies a story. For it was back in Washington, D. C., that young Roger, luring a student citizenship tour this summer, met the British diplomat and engaged him in a friendly argument over the virtues of the corn state. Accepting Roger's invitation to "come out and see for yourself," Sir Archibald concluded his super-secret visit to the Newburn farm near Eagle Grove, Ia., by stating "God has been good to this country." Mr. F. A. Kleckner, superintendent of schools, was the guest speaker at the November meeting of Delta Kappa Gamma, held at the home of Mrs. Frank Doner on Saturday at 8 o'clock.

Mr. Kleckner's topic "Evaluation of Modern Trends in Education" was broadened to include some interesting sidelights on the progress of the local survey of schools, which is being conducted by Indiana University. A stimulating discussion of educational problems followed his report. Other guests were members of the DePauw faculty, teachers in the local schools, and the school board.

The next meeting will be a dinner on December 7 followed by initiation for new members at the home of Mrs. Jack Boyd.

WATER CONTAMINATED

MICHIGAN CITY, Ind., Nov. 4 (UP)—Water works officials today sought the source of a water contamination which necessitated a warning to residents to boil all water before using it.

All operators of the Indiana Bell Telephone Company were called into emergency duty yesterday to warn telephone users, and corps of volunteers went from door to door relaying the message.

The contamination was discovered in a routine check of the mains yesterday.

Harry J. Draves, Water Works superintendent, and chief chemist Don Ungarait said they were uncertain how bad, or widespread the pollution was.

No one had been reported seriously affected today and Ungarait said he believed the worst it could cause was "a bad case of dysentery."

Gains By GOP Are Predicted

NEW YORK, Nov. 4 (UP)—Republican House and Senate gains seemed inevitable today as the general election campaign for control of the 80th congress ended in a splatter of oratory. The election takes place tomorrow.

For the first time since 1928 the Democratic party has campaigned without the spectacular leadership of Franklin D. Roosevelt. His successor, President Truman, ducked the campaign altogether. Administration and Democratic candidates generally have been on the defensive.

Commodity and food shortages gave the Republicans a blistering issue which was aggravated by a scarcity of meat. Midway in the campaign Mr. Truman was compelled to abandon his hold-the-line price control program and the lid is off on most items. A cabinet crisis over foreign policy compelled the President to fire Henry A. Wallace, his secretary of commerce, who was the administration's most effective link with the left wing of the new deal-Democratic coalition.

Although congressional losses are inevitable, Democratic spokesmen claim they will hold the Republicans short of control of either House of Congress. Republicans insist their gains will be sufficient to take the House of Representatives by a comfortable margin and, perhaps, to win the senate.

Care must be used in the application of DDT to disinfect gardens. The insecticide can be a boon to red spider mites. It doesn't hurt the mites, but kills off the insects that keep them under control.

War Bride To Be Sentenced

LAS VEGAS, Nev., Nov. 4.—(UP)—Irish war bride Bridget Waters, satisfied with a jury verdict finding her guilty of involuntary manslaughter for the slaying of her estranged American husband, spent today playing with her 16-month-old son in the garden of her hotel.

"My only regret now," the green-eyed nurse said, "is that I have to leave my baby to serve a sentence at the state prison."

Released from Clark county jail on $5000 bail only 80 minutes after the jury returned its verdict yesterday, she said she was ready to serve any sentence imposed and added she would not appeal her case.

"I am quite satisfied with the decision of the jury," she said.

District Judge A. S. Henderson, who may fine her $1000 or imprison her for 1 to 5 years, announced he would impose sentence at 3 p. m. Wednesday.

Members of the jury said they never considered finding the attractive 26-year-old Irish colleen guilty of first degree murder for the Sept. 2 killing of her husband, Frank Waters, Sr. She

To Die Nov. 22

NOV. 22 is the date set for the execution of Joseph D. Medley, above, 46, who was convicted of slaying red-haired Mrs. Nancy Boyer in March, 1945. Medley was scheduled to die several months ago, but was granted a postponement for an unsuccessful appeal to the supreme court.

While a fugitive from Southern Michigan prison at Jackson, Medley was indicted in New Orleans on a charge of murdering a woman, and he was also sought by Chicago police in the death of another woman. These, too, were red-haired. (International)
